

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

BLACK LOS ANGELES COUNTY CLIENT COALITION, INC Celebrating our Past, Present & Future

Dear Community Advocates, Colleagues and Friends,

Planning is underway for our 6th Annual Community Cultural Wellness forum "Keeping Hope Alive," sponsored by the Black Los Angeles County Client Coalition. You are invited to join BLACCC's forum the event will be held on Saturday, February 23, 2013, from 10:00am to 4:00pm, at the California African American Museum.

This forum is dedicated to African/African American community, consumers, families and young adults with special needs. The forum will cover Historical - Dialogue about things: Panelist discussion and our forum speakers session. The confluence ideas and principles; communication of cultural perspectives to eradicate barriers, utilizing collective power to find workable solutions...

We are inviting your organization/agency to join us at our function by being an exhibitor. We expect good attendance since the event has been a success over the past year's and will be publicized again this year.

There is no fee for having a resource table; at our forum, however, we are requesting a monetary donation (anything that fits your budget, however; not mandatory). We hope you can participate with Us; In Celebrating Black History Month.

Please review our event guidelines and fill out the attached form to reserve your space at the "Keeping Hope Alive," forum. Tables are assigned on a First-In/First Served Basis:
Space is Limited.

Please feel free to contact me if you would like to discuss the appropriateness of your exhibit. Thank you!

Best regards,
Osbee I. Sangster
